Time changes everything, except what's meant to beSixteen years ago, Mason Cranston made the hardest decision of his life, when his father's selfishness forced him to choose between the life and future he'd been planning with the woman he loved, and the devastated mother and five siblings that needed him most.But that was then.Now, with his siblings all grown up and his mother re-married, Mason can't help but wonder if fate has intervened when he's offered a once in a lifetime business contract, with one unexpected, and life-changing, bonus.Braya Shaw has never forgotten one moment, one second of the time she spent with Mason during her time at Langridge University. The hottest frat boy on campus and the shy bookworm weren't supposed to make sense, but somehow they'd made it work.Fast Forward sixteen years, and she is once again face-to-face with the one man she's never gotten over. Only, instead of feeling the butterflies she once felt, Braya finds herself confused and unsure.But Mason didn't get where he was in life by taking the easy way out. And although he's hurt by Braya's reaction, he is determined to win her over a second time. Proving with one touch--one pulse raising kiss, after another--that working together isn't the only thing they're still good at.Will Braya give into the connection they still share, or will Mason's devotion to his family pull them apart when tragedy strikes once again?

Amidst rumors that the Paris opera house is haunted, Christine Daaé, a young Swedish girl, performs at a gala and attracts attention from both her childhood sweetheart, Raoul, and the Phantom, who is living underground. Suddenly, mysterious circumstances abound at the opera house: a stagehand is found dead, managers receive letters demanding that Christine sing the lead role, and a chandelier crashes down into the audience. When Christine reunites with Raoul, the phantom grows dangerously jealous. Will Christine stay on the stage or disappear into the opera house's dark cellars and grim secrets? Gaston Leroux's Gothic novel was first published in French in 1911. This is an unabridged version of the translation by Alexander Teixeira de Mattos, published the same year.
