Junie B., First Grader

Too bad Junie B. Jones wasn't picked to be the flower girl in her aunt Flo's wedding--but surely she can still find a way to get everyone's attention!

Maxie, Rosie, and Earl-Partners in Grime

A rabbit wonders and then discovers what grows underground.

Junie B., First Grader

Junie, an outspoken, sometimes exasperating, first grader is thrilled when she is told she can help out Mrs. Gutzman in the school cafeteria and imagines what it will be like to be a professional lunch lady. Reprint.

What Grows Underground?

Junie B., First Grader: Shipwrecked

Offers two stories featuring first grader Junie B. Jones in which she gives first grade low marks, finds out she needs eyeglasses, and learns some interesting things about her kindergarten friend Lucille and being the first student in Room One to lose an upper tooth.

Toothless Wonder

One of Junie B.'s top front teeth is loose, and she is not thrilled about this development. Because what if she looks like toothless Uncle Lou? And what's all this tooth fairy business? Who is this woman, and what does she do with all those used teeth?

Junie B., First Grader (at Last!)

Junie B. Jones has just turned six and is looking forward to her kindergarten graduation, but when grape juice stains the white gown she could not resist trying on, she is afraid graduation is ruined. Reissue.

Junie B., First Grader: Shipwrecked

Junie B.'s journal entries start with Room One's stomach virus excitement, the first-grade Columbus Day play, and getting the part of the Pinta, the fastest ship.

na

Junie B.'s journal entries start with Room One's stomach virus excitement, the first-grade Columbus Day play, and getting the part of the Pinta, the fastest ship.

Top-secret Personal Beeswax

When Junie B. grows up, she wants to run a beauty shop, but before she can do that, she knows that she has to practice and does so on everything and everyone around her, including her dog and her bunny slippers. Simultaneous.

Junie B. Jones is a Party Animal

My name is Junie B. Jones. The B stands for Beatrice. Except I don't like Beatrice. I just like B and that's all. Make way for Junie B. Jones a girl who's speedy fast, except when she's feeling squeazy about going to school.

Ma! There's Nothing to Do Here!

If you thought Junie B. Jones was FUNNY—catch more laughs from New York Times bestselling author Barbara Park with her hilarious middle-grade novels—just right for fans of Diary of a Wimpy Kid and I Funny! Can Howard SURVIVE life without friends? Howard Jeeter's parents have ruined his life. They've moved him across the country, and all the kids in his new town act like he's totally invisible. At least, all of them except for his six-year-old neighbor, Molly Vera Thompson. Howard could use a friend. But a little girl who talks nonstop? Not what he had in mind. Still, when you're really lonely, you'll be friends with anyone...right? An IRA-CBC Children's Choice A Library of Congress Children's Book of the Year A Parents' Choice Gold Award Winner * "Park writes in a witty and bittersweet style about the awkward, supersensitive age of early adolescence. Another first-rate addition to the middle-grade popular reading shelf." —School Library Journal, Starred "[A] witty middle-grade novel." —Publishers Weekly From the Trade Paperback edition.

At first it seems as though Maxie, Rosie, and Earl have nothing in common. Maxie is too smart for his own good, Rosie is a born tattler, and Earl can't stop cracking up when he reads out loud in class. But when all three kids land outside the principal's office in disgrace, they can't help comparing notes. Just when they think there's no chance of a reprieve, the fire alarm goes off. There's only one thing for three doomed nerds to do -- head straight for the exit doors and dive into the Dumpster! From the Trade Paperback edition.
