Quantum Journey Training

Jandy Nelson meets Friday Night Lights in this sweeping, warm, arrestingly original novel about family, poverty, and hope. Wing Jones, like everyone else in her town, has worshipped her older brother, Marcus, for as long as she can remember. Good-looking, popular, and the star of the football team, Marcus is everything his sister is not. Until the night everything changes when Marcus, drunk at the wheel after a party, kills two people and barely survives himself. With Marcus now in a coma, Wing is crushed, confused, and angry. She is tormented at school for Marcus's mistake, haunted at home by her mother and grandmothers' grief. In addition to all this, Wing is scared that the bank is going to repossess her home because her family can't afford Marcus's mounting medical bills. Every night, unable to sleep, Wing finds herself sneaking out to go to the school's empty track. When Aaron, Marcus's best friend, sees her running one night, he recognizes that her speed, skill, and agility could get her spot on the track team. And better still, an opportunity at a coveted sponsorship from a major athletic gear company. Wing can't pass up the opportunity to train with her longtime crush and to help her struggling family, but can she handle being thrust out of Marcus's shadow and into the spotlight? "The swiftly paced story will quickly sweep up readers[a] well-crafted, inspirational debut with plenty of heart, hope, and determination." —Booklist "A story showing how hope and love can blossom in the midst of chaos." —Publishers Weekly

Mind Games

Let me begin by saying that our Christian experience must be translated from the four walls of the church and into our day to day lifestyle. It is in the heartbeat of our calling that we should translate the love of God as we pick it up from church and take it to our workplaces. My mandate through this book is to strategically position you into a place of influence in your nation of calling within the marketplace. For a long time the marketplace has remained the reserve of the children of this world. 'The children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light' (Luke 16:8). By failing to take our position of dominion in the marketplace, we have put our God to shame. The name of God has been profaned by many people in this world. Have you realized that anytime you mention that you are born again in your workplace, you encounter ridicule, rejection and even persecution? People have continued to shamelessly talk foul things concerning Christianity and this has to stop. God is saying that He is ready to sanctify His great name that has been profaned. God wants to do this through you. God desires that you prosper in all that you do within the marketplace, and this you must remember is for His purposes. He is not doing it for you to be proud. God is doing it "that they may see and know, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it" (Isaiah 41:20). God wants to introduce and establish His Kingdom in the marketplace through you. He will show Himself strong on your behalf for His purposes to be fulfilled in the earth. To many Christians, there has been and there remains to be a great misconception on the perception towards serving God. We see service in the full time ministry position as the only way to serve God. In everything we do, it is important to understand that it is because of the purposes of God that we were created. God is a wise investor and the gifting He invested in you is for the expansion of His Kingdom. God wants to show Himself strong through you. The Kingdom of God is within you and as such, you are supposed to carry it into your marketplaces. It has to manifest through you at your place of work, business and even in your relationships. You should remember that He chose you. You did not choose Him. To quite a number of Christians, business is secular work, whereas serving God in church is the only way to ascribe to ministry. This tendency is so prevalent in the church that many well meaning Christians do their business or work in offices without connecting it to ministry. That is why many Christians have this 'holier than thou' attitude when in church doing the things of God but when they get to their work stations they exhibit lucre luster performances, oblivious of the fact that we are commanded to work as unto God. Many Christians may be concerned with church work and even support it financially, but fail to see the connection between service at their work place and their Christian life. Some even think that if you really are serious about ministry, you ought to quit your job or give up your business in order to pursue a role in full time ministry. The object matter of this book is to bring every believer to the realization that we all were created for a purpose and that the faster we realize this and take up our positions the better. As Christians we are cut out and mandated to fulfill a specific assignment for God here on earth. Our mission is to honour God in our service by extending His will to all our activities.

Modern mystic Debra Clemente shares the intimate story of her discovery of the voice of Love speaking to her heart. "I become more confident each and every day in the truth for all that the words in my book Listen Hear, A Divine Love Story declare. In these past few years I have come to know that I am not the only one nor am I to be the only one whom is so aware of the Indwelling Spirit of God which is present to lead us unto all truth and goodness. This message deserves a perfect presentation and yet I know that can never be by my book or any other. It can only be a signpost along the way for any others journey. For with surety I say, the truth of God forever can be and only be heartfelt." - Debra Clemente "Intensely personal, faithfully rendered from observation and experience, refreshingly innocent in reporting on interactions with the Divine Presence, astute in its commentary on stale approaches to Truth, chock full of exciting encounters with a remarkably down-to-earth God, profound, mystical, practical, humorous, fast-paced and highly enjoyable reading. A gem, which I am sure will spur many on to seek their own inner enlightenment. Your detailed descriptions of what you did to get into the flow can help anyone to take similar steps adapted to personal characteristics and temperament. I can see it becoming one of the handbooks for this age of ascension; it is that good and applicable. I for one feel inspired by your example and enheartened by the thread of hope running through the book." - Hanspeter, Austria "Beautiful Love this book. Its not one you can complete at one go there is so much in each page that I feel at times its my book of answers. I open a page and I get my answer to what's on my mind Its rich beyond words just like your paintings." - Deepthy, India "Simply so fresh to read, packed with truth and encouragement, a certain whirlwind to take you forward. I love how the way thoughts are conveyed are bordering on (and even being) more like art with depth, with a sense of humor, with freshness, word plays, sparks of light amongst words." - Zak, Finland "It is something to sit quiet with. Allow words to have their say. Don't rush. I feel that while I am reading I am in a place of prayer. I found many different places where the eye of my heart was glued to the page. Your writings about the Divine Love and the transformation of the soul they are simply beautiful! Thank you for choosing to listen and hear, for being a conduit for truths that exist for all, but few stop to listen." - Joseph, USA

The mountains attract many hikers and climbers that risk their lives among the steep ridges and snowfields. Violent death is not uncommon here from exposure, carelessness or just plain bad luck. Then there are some deaths in which fate plays no part.

Parents Talk, Children Listen

Hearing From God is For Every Single Believer The Lord is speaking to you all the time, you just need to know how to listen. If you are a Christian, then you need to hear from God, it is available to you and He has made an easy way for you to know His will. If you are not a born again Christian you cannot enter fully into this. But God will still speak to you without you realizing it. This book is your introduction to the realm of the prophetic and hearing from God. For a more in depth teaching, look for other books by Les D. Crause on prophetic ministry. Hearing from God is not just something that the Old Testament prophets did. And it is not something that only a select few special people can do. It is for you right now, and as a born again believer you can hear from God every day. It is as simple as breathing. Sometimes you will not hear the voice of God, but your own voice or the voice of the enemy, the Devil. That is why it is important that every believer knows how to hear from God for themselves, and to know when it is Him speaking in their lives. In this book you will find a practical guide to hearing the voice of God. There are 7 different ways to hear that are covered in each chapter. There are also practical projects given in each chapter to help you understand and apply the principles to your own life. These basic ways of hearing from God are for everyone, but you can rise up and learn to flow in the prophetic and get greater revelation from God.

Subjects Covered in This Book: Spiritual Urim and Thummim This is a gut feeling as some people call it. One of the simplest ways to get a yes or no answer from God is to learn to use this ability that He has given you. Interpreting Dreams Everyone wants to know if their dreams mean something. Journaling Journaling is the simple act of writing down what is happening in your life. You ask your questions and then write down what the Lord says to you. This simple act can give you more revelation even than receiving a prophecy. It is a powerful tool that you can use every day of your life to know what is the right direction to take. Audible Hearing and Love Relationship Very few people have heard the voice of God out loud. But it is possible for you to hear Him speaking to you face to face. This is the one of hardest ways to hear from God, but you can learn to develop it. Also covered are: - Learning to Understand Visions - Tongues and Prophecy - How to Receive from Angels Learn to hear from God and get His direction, and you will have a new power in your life that you have not known before. Listening for the Heartbeat of God

A Well-tempered Heart

"This book is a slice of intensified history—history as I saw it." So begins John Reed's first-hand account of the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917. Much anticipated when it was published in 1919, Reed's narrative remains as riveting today as when the events he describes were still reverberating throughout the world. Reed was hardly a disinterested observer, and his involvement in the Communist labor movement lends urgency and passion to his classic account. He vividly describes events in Petrograd in November 1917, when Vladimir Lenin and the Bolsheviks stormed the Winter Palace and seized the reins of power. Despite Reed's personal leanings, which he made no attempt to hide, the book garnered praise from luminaries across the political spectrum. George F. Kennan, the American diplomat, and father of the policy of Soviet containment, said that "Reed's account of the events of that time rises above every other contemporary record for its literary power, its penetration, its command of detail. It will be remembered when all others are forgotten." Reed was committed to telling the story of the Russian revolution as truthfully as possible. That the book was banned by Russian premier Josef Stalin is a testament to the author's success in carrying out his mission. One hundred years after Russia and the world trembled, Ten Days that Shook the World brings alive the momentous events of 1917.

Listen to Your Heartbeats

"the Word of God, and no other weapon, shall prove to be the decisive factor in this war against Satan, sin, and the unthinkable slaughter of countless children in their mothers' wombs." Divine Heartbeat heralds the biblical mandate to know the glory of God through the mournful, cross-bearing work of the kind of Abortion Abolitionism that is distinctly Christian. It is simultaneously a summons to repentance, beckoning the Church to return to the sound doctrines and practices of the historic Christian faith, and a vision for a Scripture-based approach to the Abortion Abolitionist cause. Seeking to provide comfort and hope to those who weep for the preborn children of the world (and especially to those who have been bereaved of preborn children), it centers the message of Abortion Abolitionism on the Gospel of Christ Jesus. For, the incarnation of the Son of God began with the divine Child in His mother's womb. It is thus a Scripture-based celebration of life-as created by God in the womb-and a Scripture-based call to war-spiritual war on behalf of God's little ones who reside in the womb." Timothy shares my heart when he writes that 'the crisis over the lack of sound Abolitionist thinking in the Church is a crisis over Scripture.'" -From the Foreword by Craig Houghton, author of Family UNplanning

Don't Listen. Read

Poet, philosopher, translator, typographer, and cultural historian Robert Bringhurst is a modern-day Renaissance man. He has forged a career from diverse but interwoven vocations, finding ways to make accessible to contemporary readers the wisdom of poets and thinkers from ancient Greece, the Middle East, Asia, and North American First Nations. This collection shows the ways in which his industry-standard textbook The Elements of Typographic Style, his remarkable translations of Haida oral epics, and his experimental and traditional poetry and prose form a single coherent project. Listening for the Heartbeat of Being brings together a range of literary scholars, poets, journalists, and publishers to comment on Bringhurst's far reaching body of work. The essays include a comprehensive biography of Bringhurst, first-hand accounts of his book design and production efforts, an analysis of his ground-breaking polyphonic performance poems, and re-considerations of the Masterworks of the Classical Haida Myhtellers translation trilogy. Experienced Bringhurst scholars join well-known writers such as Dennis Lee and Margaret Atwood to create a multi-dimensional view of Bringhurst's career. Guided by the simple faith that "everything is connected to everything else," Bringhurst's ability to listen closely to the great minds of many cultures and represent their voices pragmatically is, as this diverse and insightful book shows, of greater interest than ever in a world facing unprecedented ecological crisis and intensive cultural evolution. Contributors include Margaret Atwood, Nicholas Bradley (University of Victoria), Crispin Elsted (Barbarian Press), Clare Goulet (Mount St. Vincent University), Iain Higgins (University of Victoria), Ishmael Hope, Peter Koch (Peter Koch Printers), Dennis Lee, Scott McIntyre, Katherine McLeod (Concordia University), Kevin McNeilly (University of British Columbia), Káawan Sangáa, and Erica Wagner.

The Princess Dehra

Listen to the Heartbeat of the Church resurrects the concept of episcopal visitation, an age-old and rarely used practice in Catholic parishes and dioceses. Using information gleaned from a survey of 100 Benedictine monasteries along with a nine-month experience of facilitating a parish goal-setting process, Baroch describes how visitation can strengthen parishes and dioceses by closing the communication gap that sometimes exists between the laity and the hierarchy. Her fictional account of St. Anonymous Catholic Church, the heart of the book, shows how a struggling congregation can accomplish its goals when parishioners, the pastor, and their bishop engage in shared ministry. It can happen--one parish, one diocese, at a time.
