Trials of a Northeast Louisiana Child

"Don't go around measurin' yourself by other people's rulers. 'Cause you'll never measure up." For most people, life is kind of like feeling around in the dark, stumbling into things and hoping they get what they think they want from what's around them. And if they don't get it, they just keep at it the same old way, but hoping for something different. But what if you could learn about life before making mistakes? In Oak Park, Virginia, where the story takes place, life is both familiar and unpredictable, "just like any other place on earth with smart and simple people, pretty and ugly people, uppity and lowly folks. Somebody is always in some mess that they had no business in, or caught up in something they never expected." When her adopted granddaughter, Ruby Gray, asks her about love, Miss Lucky, through her hard-won wit and wisdom, imparts to her the secrets to life and the essence of love.

"What are you, some kinda PSYCHO?" How many times have you said this to someone? Probably a lot. How often has someone said this to you? Hopefully, not so much! Truth is, we've all dated or been involved with someone who drove us nuts or, if we haven't, chances are that we were the ones who got on the other person's nerves. Now, the question is: who is the Psycho; you or the other person? Don't Date a Psycho: Don't Be One, Don't Date One looks at why we behave in the ways that we do in relationships, what makes us stay with the person we're with and what makes us leave them, and how to tell who is safe to be in a relationship with and who is unsafe. Done with humor and written from more than two decades of clinical experience as a psychologist, Dr. Keiron Brown helps us to gain a clearer understanding of who we are as individuals, who we are as partners in relationships and what makes each and every one of us prone to acting a little nuts sometimes when our hearts are at stake.

The implications are clear; anyone with his knowledge can take control of any in-flight drone anywhere in the world. Dr Chang is missing from his California home and the CIA believes he is kidnapped. Deputy Director, Sandra Wysinski assembles her team and sends them on a worldwide search. John LeMaster is paired with Joyce Chin, aka "The Viper." They travel to Korea via Tokyo where they enlist the assistance of Japanese and Korean Yakuza mobs. Ernesto Chavez is sent to Venezuela via Spain under his cover as a beer salesman and "The Viper" makes a solo visit to Pakistan. When LeMaster objects to being paired with the Viper he is advised by Sandra Wysinski that, "You will be working with an intelligent, resourceful woman but in Asia men will not negotiate with a woman. They will assume that Viper is either your secretary or mistress. Both are acceptable roles in Asia. She speaks Japanese, Korean and five dialects of Chinese and her name is Joyce Chin, not Viper." Their adventures are exciting and lead to a surprising conclusion on the tropical island of Jamaica.

Interpreting the New Testament Text

CHAPTER I THE MCKITTRICKS' MISFORTUNE "'Ho, ho, vacation days are here, We welcome them with right good cheer;In wisdom's halls we love to be, But yet 'tis pleasant to be free, "' warbled Tabitha Catt, pausing on the doorstep of her little desert home as she vigorously shook a dingy dusting cloth, and hungrily sniffed the fresh, sweet morning air, for, although the first week of June was already gone, the fierce heat of the summer had not yet descended upon Silver Bow, nestling in its cup-like hollow among the Nevada mountains. "'Ho, ho, the hours will quickly fly, And soon vacation time be by;Ah, then we'll all in glad refrain, Sing welcome to our school again.'" piped up a sweet voice in muffled accents from the depths of the closet where the singer was rummaging to find hooks for her wardrobe, which lay scattered rather promiscuously about Tabitha's tiny bedroom. "Why, Gloriana Holliday, where did you learn that?" demanded the girl on the threshold, abruptly ceasing her song. "It's as old as the hills. Mrs. Carson used to sing it when she went to school." "So did my mother. I've got her old music book with the words in it," responded her companion, emerging from the dark closet, flushed but triumphant. "There! I've hung up the last dud I could find room for. The rest must go back in the trunk, I guess. My, but it does seem nice to have a few weeks of vacation, doesn't it?" "One wouldn't think so to hear you carolling about school's beginning again," laughed Tabitha, shaking her finger reprovingly at the red-haired girl now busily collecting the remainder of her scattered property and bundling it into a half-empty trunk just outside the kitchen door. Gloriana echoed the laugh, and then answered seriously, "But really, I have never been glad before to see vacation come. It always meant only hard work and worry, gathering fruit in the hot sun or digging vegetables and peddling them around from door to door; while school meant books and lessons and a chance to rest a bit, and the last two years it meant Miss Angus, who did not mind my red hair and crutches." "But it is all different now," Tabitha interrupted hastily, shuddering at the gloomy picture her companion's words had called up. "You are my sister now, and there won't be any more goats and gardens to bother about. You have left off using one crutch altogether, and don't need the other except out of doors. We are going to have a lovely vacation, and you won't want school to begin at all in September." "Yes, it is all different now, Kitty Catt, thanks to dear old you!" agreed the younger girl, giving the slender figure in the doorway an affectionate hug. "And I suppose I shall be as daffy about this queer desert place as you are by the time Ivy Hall opens its doors again--" "Aha!" triumphed Tabitha. "Then you don't like it now, do you? I never could get you to admit it last winter." "I haven't admitted it yet," Gloriana retorted spiritedly. "It looks so much different in the summer time, but still seems queer to me with its heaps of rocks and no trees except the stiff old Joshuas.
