Sight Word Fun 1 Deluxe Edition Workbook Sounding words out is just one piece of learning to read. Sight Word Fun, an I Know It! workbook, contains simple, entertaining activities that will help your child understand the meaning of sight words and recognize differences in spelling. Sight words are not phonetic, which makes them more difficult to learn. For example, this, them, that, and there look much the same to a beginning reader. Most sight words, such as what, where, and when, can be learned only by reading practice. One activity is making new words from the ending letters of a sight word. Young learners can also say words then write them, find sound-alike words, spot words with other words in them, or finish words and sentences correctly. This workbook offers plenty of ways to help your child memorize sight words.

This book of activities gives children practice in learning the letter sounds of the alphabet. The activities start with the consonant letters and their sounds, then progress to vowel sounds, consonant blends, the hard and soft sounds of certain letters, digraphs, diphthongs, and other aspects of phonics. Many of the worksheets engage children in creating new words and using them in context. The words are age-appropriate and the reading selections have been created using the Spache Readability Formula. These activities can be used in any reading program with children of all ability levels. They provide the extra practice that many children need to master beginning reading skills.
