book presents a preview of the type of response you will have to give to the questions in the actual examinations. The book provides suggested solutions to students for past examination papers. The author has served as a CAPE Examining Assistant for the past 15 years and is very acquainted with the style of questions and the solutions required. My approach to preparing the answers has been both of an examiner and teacher. I am fully aware of the frustrations many candidates face in formatting and presenting their responses of this particular unit and have sought to address this problem. You can use the layouts suggested. The book provides suggested responses to question papers for the years 2012 - 2019. These are the years covered by the present syllabus. The solutions are clearly laid out according to each year and each module. Students can obtain the relevant examination papers from the Caribbean Examinations Council and work them through by modules and compare their response with the one given here. The book will also be useful to teachers in preparing their students for taking this exam.

Newswatch

Gle, a chief priest, abandons his role as custodian and defender of age-old customs to fight voluntarily on the side of the British in the Second World War. When the war ends, Gle and his fellow African soldiers do not receive their promised rewards. But they do not return peacefully to their homesteads or reassume their traditional values. Politicised by their role in the foreign conflicts they join together and march in protest to present a petition to the Governor of the Gold Coast (now Ghana), in an act of self-determination. The colonial forces respond with fire; soldiers are shot dead. The angry protesters descend into Accra and loot the shops, in what became the famous looting of 28 February 1948, and would mark the beginning of Ghana's fight for independence from Britain.
