Fiscal fragmentation in decentralized countries

Set in West Kalimantan, Indonesian Borneo, this study explores the shifting relationships between border communities and the state along the political border with East Malaysia. The book rests on the premise that remote border regions offer an exciting study arena that can tell us important things about how marginal citizens relate to their nation-state.

This country profile reviews the drivers of deforestation and forest degradation in Indonesia, sets out the institutional, political and economic environment within which REDD+ is being implemented in Indonesia, and documents the process of national REDD+ policy development during the period 2007 – early 2012. While Indonesia is committed at the national and international level to addressing climate change through the forestry sector, there are clearly contextual challenges that need to be addressed to create the enabling conditions for REDD+. Some of the major issues include inconsistent legal frameworks, sectoral focus, unclear tenure, consequences of decentralisation, and weak local governance. Despite these challenges, however, REDD+ opens up an opportunity for improvements in forest governance and, more broadly, in land use governance. More democratic political-economic processes in general, greater freedom of civil society and the press, and heightened awareness of environmental issues can help build support and solidify policies in this direction.

Pembangunan perkotaan berwawasan lingkungan

Local budgeting serves important functions that include setting priorities, planning, financial control over inputs, management of operations and accountability to citizens. These objectives give rise to technical and policy issues that require open discussion and debate. The format of the budget document can facilitate this debate. This book provides a comprehensive treatment of all aspects of local budgeting needed to develop sound fiscal administration at the local level. Topics covered include fiscal administration, forecasting, fiscal discipline, fiscal transparency, integrity of revenue administration, budget formats, and processes including performance budgeting, and capital budgeting.

Kamus istilah otonomi daerah

Most countries, developed and developing, are fiscally decentralized with regional and local governments of varying importance. In many of these countries, some of these sub-national governments differ substantially from others in terms of wealth, ethnic, religious, or linguistic composition. This book considers how fiscal arrangements may strengthen or weaken national solidarity and the effectiveness with which public services are provided. In particular, the nation's ability to cope with changes created by decentralization is explored.

Aaron Wildavsky's greatest concern, as expressed in his writings, is how people manage to live together. This concern may at first appear to have little to do with the study of budgeting, but for Wildavsky budgeting made living together possible. Indeed, as he argues in Budgeting and Governing, now available in paperback, if you cannot budget, you cannot govern.

Penggunaan keuangan negara menuntut proses pelaksanaan yang tertib, disiplin, tepat, dan akuntabel maka dibutuhkan pemahaman yang komprehensif dari semua pihak yang terlibat. Buku ini layak untuk menjadi pedoman dan referensi bagi semua pihak dalam menyusun perencanaan, pelaksanaan, dan pengawasan penggunaan keuangan negara melalui pengadaan barang/jasa pemerintah dengan cara swakelola. Sebuah langkah ikhtiar mewujudkan pengadaan yang kredibel demi kesejahteraan rakyat. H. Mohamad Muraz, S.H., M.M. , Walikota Sukabumi swakelola. Selama ini, masih banyak orang bahkan para pejabat pengambil keputusan yang beranggapan bahwa dengan swakelola maka “segalanya bisa dilakukan dengan swakelola pula”. Buku ini akan meluruskan anggapan salah tersebut, dengan pemberian contoh-contoh yang aplikatif dan penjelasan yang mengalir runtut, baik tinjauan dari sisi perencanaan, pengorganisasian, pelaksanaan, pengawasan, maupun perpajakan. Achmad Karsono, Perwakilan BPKP Provinsi Maluku, Trainer dan PKA PB/J, Anggota P3I Kurangnya rujukan yang dapat menjadi pedoman dalam pelaksanaan swakelola merupakan kendala utama bagi para praktisi. Regulasi yang menjadi satu-satunya referensi harus kembali dijabarkan dalam bentuk buku agar lebih mudah dipahami. Buku ini menjadi salah satu rujukan yang dapat memberikan arah yang benar mengenai pelaksanaan swakelola. Buku ini tidak hanya sebatas menyalin kembali apa yang tersurat dalam peraturan perundang-undangan, tetapi mengurai lebih luas mengenai swakelola. The Industrial Revolution 4.0 describes the exponential changes to the way we live, work, and relate to one another due to the adoption of cyber-physical systems, the Internet of Things, and the Internet of Systems. This revolution is expected to impact all disciplines, industries, business, and economics. Therefore, the main goal of the conference was to provide recent research related development of digital technology to the business, economics, management, and accounting field. These proceedings consist of selected papers, accepted after a rigid review process covering several issues in strategic decision making, management, accounting, policy studies, knowledge management, innovation management, applied economics, econometrics, capital market, and marketing & sales management. It will provide details beyond what is possible to be included in an oral presentation and constitute a concise but timely medium for the dissemination of recent research results. BES Conference Proceedings 2019 will be invaluable to professionals and academics in business, management, accounting, and economics for a good understanding of the developments towards industrial revolution 4.0.

Governing Sustainable Cities

Economic Review

Urban governance and sustainability are rapidly becoming key issues around the world. Currently three billion people - half the population of the planet - live in cities, and by 2050 a full two-thirds of the world's population will be housed in ever larger and increasingly densely populated urban areas. The economic, social and environmental challenges posed by urbanization on such a large scale and at such a rapid pace are staggering for local, regional and national governments working towards sustainability. Solutions to the myriad problems plaguing the quest for sustainability at the city-level are equally as diverse and complex, but are rooted in the assumptions of the 'sustainability agenda', developed at the Rio Earth Summit and embodied in Local Agenda/Action 21. These assumptions state that good governance is a necessary precondition for the achievement of sustainable development, particularly at the local level, and that the mobilization of local communities is an essential part of this process. Yet until now, these assumptions, which have guided the policies and programmes of over 6000 local authorities around the world, have never been seriously tested. Drawing on three years of field research in 40 European towns and cities, Governing for Sustainable Cities is the first book to examine empirically the processes of urban governance in sustainable development. Looking at a host of core issues including institutional and social capacity, institutional design, social equity, politics, partnerships and cooperation and creative policy-making, the authors draw compelling conclusions and offer strong guidance. This book is essential reading for policy-makers, politicians, activists and NGOs, planners, researchers and academics, whether in Europe, North America, Australasia or transitional and developing countries, concerned with advancing sustainability in our rapidly urbanizing world.
